Toronto, Jan. 7.— A most extraordinary case of insanity was developed here yesterday. Mrs. Robert Coombe, wife of a prosperous druggist, has been of unsound mind fortwo years. The family were averse to sending her to an asylum and she has been attended with devotion by her three daughters, whose ages run from 20 to 30 years. Close and constant intercourse with the afflicted woman seems to have developed a fatal inheritance in the children, and yesterday signs of insanity, which had been for so long latent, manifested themselves in the whole family. Mr. Coombe with his three daughters and nurse went out for a walk and they were noticed behaving very strangely on Yonge street. The nurse used every effort to soothe and control her charges but without effect and she summoned a policeman under whose care the party proceeded to a police station. The family were there examined by a medical man, who thought it best that they should be taken to an asylum, which was done. The case stands without a parallel in in the records of asyums. The affliction is hereditary, as a brother of Mrs. Coombe died in the same condition. The peculiar form of their malady is one in which delusions and hallucinations take possession of the mind.

The ladies' desire is to impress their listeners with the truth of the doctrine of transmigration of the soul. The superintendent of the asylum hopes to restore the girls to reason, but the mother's affection is regarded as permanent.

The murderer of the Cooke family also attempted to poison a doctor in Montreal, Can., where he lived as servant. He had a quarrel with the housekeeper and put poison in the coffee which was used by the household.

Calumet, Ont., Jan. 5.—Mann, the murderer of the Cooke family, was saved from tynching by the vigilance of the sheriff. The infuriated citizens of Hawkesburg, provided with a rope, followed the party betweeu this place and Torignal. Mann, when in court, seemed to be indifferent to the gaze and hreats of the people.

Milton, Ont., Jan. 5. — Michael O'Rourke, who murdered old man Maher and his daughter in January, was hanged this morning. He was firm to the last but made uo statement on the scaffold.

Aphasia.

One of the most curious and baffling of nervous diseases is aphasia, which consists in the loss of power in the subject of it to recall certain words and which in serious cases destroys all power of expression.

An eminent French judge who suffered from it would say to his wife: "Give me my—dear me! my—you know," and he would point to his head.

"Your hat?"

"O, yes, my hat."

Sometimes, again, he would ring the bell before going out, and say to his servant, "Give me my um—um—umbrel."

"Your umbrella?"

"Yes, my umbrella."

At this time he exhibited no other symptom of diminished intelligence, but was in the habit of discussing the most intricate point of law. Another invalid would substitute the word he desired to use with a paraphrase, as for instance, when he wanted to mention his "aunt" he would say "the nearest relative by the mother's side."

While in the simpler forms of disease only a few words are lost by the sufferer, in more complicated cases his vocabulary is limited to perhaps not more than half a dozen words. In one instance the total vocabulary of an aphasia patient consisted of five words, "yes," "no," "three," "always," "hello," He answered all inquiries with one of these, and though when questioned concerning a number, he would invariably answer three, he would give the accurate number by exhibiting his fingers. The greatest sufferers are unable to express themselves by writing as by speech. They take up the pen eagerly in their hands and either scrawl a few unintelligible hieroglyphics or write some word wholly different from the one they intend.

No positive cure for this strange aberration is known, though the patients sometimes recover, and the most curious feature of it is, no general weakness of the intellect accompanies it.

We are reminded of the "Widow's cruse of oil" when we see the installments of Christmas cards and New Year's presents gradually dropping in.

* T. N. Hibben & Co.

James Cullen, Pool's Island, N. F., writes:—"I have been watching the progress of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil since its introduction to this place, and with much pleasure state that my anticipations of its success have been fully realized, it having cured me of bronchitis and soreness of the nose; while not a few of my 'rheumatic neighbors' (one old lady in particular) pronounce it to be the best article of its kind that has ever been brought before the public. Your medicine does not require any longer a sponsor, but if you wish me to act as such, I shall be only too happy to have my name connected with your prosperous child." 64

"Indigestion".—You have tried everything for it and found no help. We are no doctors, but can offer a prescription that has cured very many, and it might cure you as well; it will cost but a quarter of a dollar, and can be had at any Druggists—Ask for Perry Davis' Pain-Killer. *

Hacking coughs lacerate the lungs and beget consumption; consumption fills our cemeteries. If nipped in the bud with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, the destructive malady is deprived of its power. Pain is also subdued by this benign healing agent—corns, sores, frost-bites, burns and other troubles. 65

Beautiful Hair is one of the most striking and pleasing characteristics and can easily be obtained by using Cingalese Hair Renewer. Price 50 cents per bottle. For sale by all druggists. dw1y

A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY.

She would not keep house without it, so says Mrs. McArthur, of Hopeville, regarding Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. This medicine is pleasant to take, and speedily cures coughs, bronchitis, asthma, weak lungs, and all Pectoral complaints. (15)

CONQUERED AT LAST,

D. McCrimmon, of Lancaster, was afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism from youth; all remedies failed untill he tried Burdock Blood Bitters, which was one year ago, since which time he has had no attack of the complaint. (16)

SO IT GOES.

Over twenty-five thousand bottles of Burdock Blood Bitrers were sold during the past three months without one single complaint of dissatisfaction; but on the contrary, testimonials are pouring in of its efficacy in various diseases of the blood and liver. (13)

CHLORODYNE!

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

Advice to Invalids—If you wish to obtain quiet, refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media, and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by Dr. J. Collis Browne (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks o Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Mumps,it &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5th, 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russell street, Bloomsbury, London. Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly esteemed medicine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances of infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Cholerale Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is A DELIBERATE BREACH OF FAITH ON THE PART OF THE CHEMIST TO PRESCRIBER AND PATIENT ALIKE. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the Inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which, he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See "The Times," July 13, 1864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9., 4s 6d and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words 'Dr. J Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

Caution—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.

THE COMING WAVE.

HAMPTON, P. E. I., 20th Dec., 1882.
MR. SHAKESPEARE, M. P., Mayor of Victoria, B. C.

A number of the young men about here held a meeting lately to consider the best place for immigration. They appointed a committee, with John McQuarrie chairman and the undersigned secretary. I was ordered to write to some one in British Columbia who would be likely to know, so I have found out you to be a likely person to give us an idea of the resources of your province.

Of those wishing to emigrate some are farmers, some carpenters, blacksmiths, laborers and school teachers.

What do men pay for board as a rule? They want to know the wages they would get out there. I am the only school teacher among those wanting to emigrate. But I am willing to do anything that would bring me the most money. I would be prepared to go into a store as clerk, or anything else that I could do. I am pretty well educated, but on account of adverse circumstances I was forced to work for small pay the last year or so.

Please answer as fully as possible, as soon as convenient, and oblige,

Yours, etc.,
COLIN MCPHAIL, Teacher,
Hampton, P. E. Island.

The above communication is a specimen of a large number of similar ones received by the mayor, the editor of this journal and others; and for the information of such correspondents, a few of the queries in question will be answered. All the classes of immigrants specified, with the exception perhaps of school teachers, are in great demand. There is plenty of room for farmers, and the occupation is remunerative. Carpenters, bricklayers, blacksmiths and laborers are required in all directions. This city during the incoming season will absorb a large number of mechanics, especially carpenters, masons and laborers. Present prices for this class of work are: $3 50 per day for first-class carpenters; $4 for bricklayers and $2 50 for bricklayers' laborers and most other kinds of manual labor. The above prices will convey a tolerable idea of the remuneration that intending emigrants to British Columbia may confidently expect after their arrival. So far as demand is concerned, there is no doubt that there will be ample room and steady employment for all who are likely to arrive. Building is certain to be very brisk in this city, in New Westminster, Nanaimo, Port Moody and elsewhere. The railroad contractor, too, is making great efforts to complete the first 70 miles of the C. P. R. from the salt water at Port Moody to Yale; consequently station houses, bridges, culverts, and a thousand and one other kinds of work will require skilled and unskilled labor. The railroad belt will soon be thrown open for settlement, and then agriculturists can procure land on easy terms with the certainty of getting good prices for everything they can produce. Immigrants will have the option of settling on the rich agricultural and pasture lands of the lower Fraser, the more elevated grazing and farming regions east of the Cascade mountains, or in the numerous and pleasant valleys of Vancouver Island. In any of these sections of the province not only a competency but comparative wealth awaits honest industry and well applied energy in an agricultural or grazing direction. The fishing industry, which has already attained large proportions, is capable of indefinite expansion and in no pursuit are people of the maritime provinces better acquainted with than that of fishing. A great number of persons are engaged in this occupation during the fishing season, and from year to year their numbers will be largely increased. Eastern emigrants are also more or less acquainted with the lumbering business, and British Columbia is becoming as much noted for the superior quality of her forest products as she is for her coal and other mineral wealth and fisheries. In this hasty sketch of the province's resources and prospects, intending immigrants from the eastern side of the Rocky mountains, from the old country and from Continental Europe will gather that this is, and is likely to be for some time to come, a desirable field for investment of capital and a most remunerative one for almost any description of labor. The equable and salubrious climate is a not unimportant factor in the list of inducements that this western province has to offer. The contrast in this particular with the climate of the eastern provinces is very marked. Here there are neither the extremes of summer heat nor of winter cold. Farming and building operations are scarcely ever interrupted in this part of the province by the weather. The happy climatic medium that is enjoyed on the coast districts; the dry and health-giving atmosphere of the elevated plateau between the Cascade and the Rocky mountains and the colder regions further north offer a wide range for selection to families and young men coming to this extensive western province of the Dominion. The change in the local government that must inevitably take place in a few days will bring to the head of affairs a set of men who, instead of retarding progress and discouraging immigration, as the present occupants of the treasury benches have done, will adopt liberal measures and offer such inducements to settlers as will secure such an era of prosperity as the province has long been a stranger to. That business is reviving, money easier, realestate looking up and a spirit of hopefulness pervading all classes of the community none will deny; but all this has been brought about in spite of the narrow-minded and parsimonious policy of the apology for a government that will soon be ignominiously ousted by the people's representatives from positions of trust they have long held illegally.

GIVES IT UP.

A writer in the Mainland Guardian (government organ) throws up the political sponge. With a frankness that does him credit he acknowledges that the government are in the minority. He expresses a willingness to toss Armstrong and Hett overboard if only Beaven can be saved. That is to say, the Guardian pledges itself that if Mr. Beaven is only permitted to take ever so humble a seat in the next cabinet he will accept any policy the Opposition may see fit to frame. The audacity of this proposition is only equalled by its dishonesty. No doubt Mr. Beaven is anxious to enter the new cabinet. But he can't. There will be no peg for his hat to hang upon there. The Guardian may as well cease its haver-ing. Coalition with the bete noir of the province would be an impossiblity. The Guardian's acknowledgment of defeat, however, in the face of Mr. Beaven's denial is, to say the least, creditable.

A Call to the Ratepayers.

TO THE EDITOR: To day we have to elect a mayor and seven councillors whose duty it will be to attend to all municipal matters and administer the civic revenue for the current year. Now, while the fact of there being sixteen candidates for the eight offices, indicates that at least a portion of the community is alive to the necessity of an active interest being taken in municipal administration, it is to be hoped that it will be the means of inducing many who are indifferent about such things, to exercise their privilege as voters and cast their ballots for those whom they may consider best fitted to fill the positions.

Every one of the candidates has his friends who are confident of his success, and that confidence if properly supported, by their vote and influence may place him at the head of the poll; but if it is allowed to be simply an assurance of success without the support of a vote, that same fancied security may, and probably will, cause his defeat.

Therefore let every one whose name is on the voters' list cast his vote to-day, and then we shall have a mayor and council elected by an actual majority of all the ratepayers of the city; a state of things much to be desired. For in the past, municipal elections have been frequently carried by a few who have taken the trouble to interest themselves therein, while a large number of those who should feel interested in the result have allowed things to take their chance, and have afterwards regretted that their apathy defeated men whose election they considered assured.

VOTER.

The Height of Impudence.

TO THE EDITOR: I have heard the above heading illustrated in many different ways; but Mr. Jas. Fell offering himself as a candidate to represent Yates street ward, fully exemplifies it. At the present time he is chairman of the school trustees, and in offering himself on the day of nomination, he said that Fort street could do all the traffic business for the next 20 years; that Yates street required no outlet! But for this demagogue Yates street would have had her just rights last year—and he has the audacity to ask your votes so that he may be in a better position to advocate the interests of Fort street, and to cast a vote and sling his abuse at any one who dare advocate the interest of any other part of the city. This rejected of all parties, whom Mr. Booth styled "a political curiosity," allows the school reserve to be made a cow pasture and forces the children to shovel the dung away before they can play. Ratepayers, if you study your own interests, you will reject this self conceited, self-seeking individual and cast your votes for Boyd, Wriglesworth and Vigelius—old and tried friends.

RATEPAYER.

Marriage of a Nun.

YANKTON, December 29th.—There is great excitement here over the secret marriage yesterday of Er. V. Sebiakin Ross, a young Russian physician, and Sister Mary Paul of the Catholic Convent of the Sacred Heart. The affair leaked out to-day.

OMAHA, December 29th.—The particulars of the marriage at Yancton, D. T., which is causing considerable sensation, are as follows: The parties are Sister Mary Paul of the Convent of the Sacred Heart, and Dr. V. Sebiakin Ross, a prominent physician of Russian birth. The marriage took place from the residence of George Hoffman, and was performed by a Congregational minister, Rev. Jos. Ward. Ross was a physician at the convent and attended Sister Paul when she was injured by a fall several months ago. An affection sprang up between them and ripened into love. A mutual friend sent an invitation to Sister Paul to come to her house, and soon the convent carriage appeared with Sister Mary Paul, who went into the house and then to an adjoining house, where the ceremony was performed. She then returned to the convent in the carriage. This evening she left the convent and joined her husband. Her right name is Mary Kerns, and she was a prominent member of the sisterhood. She is very intelligent, has winning manners, a beautiful face and elegant figure. Her husband is a man of nerve, an excellent physician, and for five years was a Siberian exile on account of being a Russian Nihilist. After the expiration of his term of banishment he came to the United States.

The Premier in a Panic.

It has transpired that the premier, thrown off his balance by news that the Indians at Metlakatlah had removed certain buildings from church land and erected them on their own realestate, has applied to the commander of the American revenue cutter Oliver Wolcott for protection. Capt. Stodder has telegraphed to Washington for permission to go north and it will, no doubt, be accorded. The premier ought to accompany the expedition. His scalp would enjoy an immunity which even the baldest object in the world—a billiard ball—would envy. Let him go, by all means.

The Municipal Election.

Voting will commence at 10 a. m. and continue until 4 p.m. Ratepayers may vote in every ward for councillor in which they may pay a tax or license, but only once for mayor, at the city hall. We would earnestly urge on all taxpayers the importance of voting for Mr. Redfern for mayor. If returned he will never be guilty of an act that will cast discredit on the position, and an honest and economical administration of civic affairs will be assured. No man who has the interests of the city at heart should refrain from voting to-day. There are 1100 voters on the roll; but not more than 700 or 800 will be polled, as many are absent.

Foreigners Cannot Voto.

No person, being a foreigner, who has paid only road tax, business or liquor license can vote at municipal elections. Foreigners who are assessed for realestate are entitled to vote; but no others. We mention this fact to prevent errors, as the penalty, whether the party is challenged or not, is very severe.

Nothing is Plainer

Than that the friends of honest and economical city government should cast their votes to-day for C. E. Redfern for Mayor. Every vote should be polled. If the day is lost it will be because of the indifference of ratepayers who have heavy interests at stake in the result of the present contest.

ATTENTION!

VOTERS OF JOHNSON STREET WARD

Are respectfully informed that WM. JENSEN has NOT withdrawn from the contest for Councillor for your Ward.

The Interior.

Mr. Lundbaum, who arrived from Nicola yesterday, reports a mild winter—no snow and very little frost. Stock is looking well. The losses will be small. At Lytton only four inches of snow had fallen.

A "NUN" buoy marked No. 4 is reported ashore on Vancouver Island near Barclay Sound. There is also on the same spot, the remains apparently of a small schooner consisting of timbers, rudder and a skiff.

JOHNSON STREET WARD.—Mr. Morris Humber will be a candidate in Johnson street ward for the council. Being a large property owner in the ward, he will make the ratepayers' interests his first care. *

JOHNSON STREET WARD.—Mr. David Dale will offer himself as a candidate for the Council in Johnson street ward. *

What Some People Say.

That the Catholic Bishop of Canada, who banished crimps and curls and bangs and frizzes from the sanctuary, and declared Sir Walter Scott's poem "Marmion" an ungodly book, now denies the sacrament to all members of his church who permit their children to attend model or normal schools.

That the Peltzer brothers, sentenced to death for the murder of Bernays, are certain not to be executed, as death sentences in Belgium are always commuted. The Peltzers will appeal against the verdict on the ground of informality in the form of procedure.

That it is announced that the Princess Victoria, of Hesse Darmstadt, daughter of the late Princess Alice and granddaughter of the Queen, is about to be betrothed to the Grand Duke Frederick William of Baden, grandson of the Emperor William of Germany.

That the Pall Mall Gazette speaks of Russia as "the unwieldy empire, which sprawls across two continents."

That in Russia there are railway cars with small saloons on each side of the aisle, so that privacy may be secured.

That "there generation of feminine attire," says an English writer, "will never be compassed by the way of trowserdom."

That the infant ruler of Thibet is not permitted to reach adolescence, the native priests putting him out of the way, so that the sovereignty may always be vested in a mere infant.

That Coldbath Fields Prison has restored the treadwheel, which was burnt down two or three years ago, and there are now some 350 snug little berths—or at any rate as many of that number as are not already occupied—ready for gentlemen to whom, as advertisers sometimes say, "salary is of less importance that steady employment."

That what a providential thing it is, as a general rule, by the time the eldest girl gets old enough to have a beau the youngest child is old enough to sleep quietly. A cross baby yelling up-stairs would be a fearful damper on courtship.

That the young girls who enter the English postal service get $2.50 per week at first. If they are real good girls, after a few years they get 50 cents or $1 more. Many of them remain single, because the salary is not large enough to support a husband.

That she admitted to her mother the young man had made a very strong impression on her. "Yes," remarked the old lady, "I can see where the impression mashed the lace flat as a clean napkin. Don't let it happen again."

That "I put a kiss under the postage stamp for my darling," wrote a Cincinnati man to his girl. She deftly removed the stamp with steam, but found no kiss, only some remnants of plug tobacco, and a strong odour of beer. They are not married yet, and not likely to be.

That at a recent divorce trial the wife was asked a question to which she made the following reply:—"When I was first married I was so jealous of my husband that I thought every woman I saw wanted him, and now I wonder how I ever could have been such a fool as to have wanted him myself."

That a female, young or old, who does a man's work ought to get a man's pay.—Boston Globe. True; and if you will look at the new styles, you will perceive that many women who don't do a man's work are getting a pretty good share of a man's pay.

That earn your own bread, and see how sweet it will be! Work, and see how well you will be! Work, and see how cheerful you will be! Work, and see how independent you will be! Work, and see how happy your family will be! Work, and see how religious you will be!—for, before you know where you are, instead of repining at Providence, you will find yourself offering up thanks for all the numerous blessings you enjoy.

That a young man the other evening called on his ladylove and staid so late that the girl's mother brought in a dozen eggs and asked him to hatch them.

That Mr. Jensen has not withdrawn as a candidate for Johnson street ward.

That the new steamboat syndicate have leased the Hudson Bay Co.'s wharf for the purposes of their business.

That the claim of Mr. W. G. Norris, Johnson street, in connection with the recent fire, amounting to over $1800, was yesterday promptly paid by Mr. Nuttall, agent for the Phœnix Fire Assurance Co. of London. See card of thanks.

That The Colonist did not nominate Mr. Beaven for a second class clerkship. It said that if he behaved himself for the next eight or ten years he might possibly obtain employment of that description. But that is a very different thing from saying that at present he is fitted for a position of the kind.

That the mail steamer carried away only $9438 last evening.

That Michael Shea, a young American, has been found lying dead near Big Tunnel on the Yale-Savona railway; drink did it.

That no less than seven engagements are authoratively announced by the parties to the same. Names will appear in due course after the happy pairs have been to church. No flowers. No cards. No cake. No wine.

That Maplehurst has been leased from the 31st of March for Rear Admiral Lyons and family, who will remain here during the summer.

That deputy returning officers, poll clerks and agents for candidates are requested to be in attendance at the City Hall this morning at 9 o'clock.

That Mr. Redfern has pledged himself to oppose any increase in the number of liquor licenses.

That the friends of honest and economical government should see to it that no illegal votes are polled by means of false personation. Many voters are absent from the city. See to it that their votes are not polled.

That Mr. Henry Gribbell, a successful business man, will be a candidate for the council in Yates street ward. *

That H. C. Wilson, Government street, has a large and varied assortment of stoves of every description, which he will sell cheap during the holidays, and will deliver all goods free of charge with his own cart. *

ANOTHER ENTERTAINMENT.—In consequence of the Johnson street fire occurring before the last entertainment given by the public schools and lady and gentlemen amateurs, being interrupted before it was half over, another one will be given on Wednesday evening next, at Philharmonic Hall. The object being a praiseworthy one, namely the purchase of a harmonium for the girls' department, and those having charge being so popular the entertainment is sure to attract a large audience.

FROM THE SOUND.—Yesterday morning the steamer Hope arrived from Seattle and the Islands with passengers and freight and sailed again yesterday afternoon.

New Warehouse.

The new two-story brick warehouse erected on Yates street by Mr. S. J. Pitts is now about completed and is one of the most substantial buildings in town. It has a frontage on Yates street of 32 feet, with a depth of 80 feet. In the rear the building extends to Waddington alley by an ell 20 feet long by 22 feet wide, making its width at this portion 52 feet. The height of the warehouse is 45 feet, and the front is of neat design. On the ground floor are four arched doorways fitted with glass entrance doors, and the second story has four circular headed windows with circular brick mouldings above them, the whole being surmounted by a bold cornice of plain but neat design, while a lofty verandah extends over the sidewalk. The front is painted a light color. On Waddington alley the ell has double glass entrance doors with circular-headed windows on either side. The building is erected on a stone foundation with granite sills to the doorways, which have also granite plinths rising 2 feet 6 inches above the sills. The first story is 16 feet and the second 15 feet high, clear of the joists, and both present the same handsome area of flooring, probably not exceeded by that of any single warehouse in the city. The floors are, of course, double, the under one being laid diagonally, and in the walls down either side the building are 18 flues running from the foundation to the roof for the purpose of ventilating the joists of the ground floor and preventing decay. On the ground floor, on the north side of the building, a space 8 feet wide running back 30 feet from the front is separated from the warehouse by a glass partition rising to the ceiling, as a counting-room, and behind this is a substantial flight of stairs leading to the second story. The building has a metal roof. The interior will be provided with an elevator, and as soon as the office is completed, Mr. Pitts will move into his new quarters, and it is to be hoped that his enterprise will soon be followed by other proprietors on this street. The architect of the new building is Mr. H. O. Tiedeman; the contractor for the brick work is Mr. John Huntingdon; for the carpenter work, Messrs. Smith & Clark; and for the painting, Lettice & Sears.

Liconsing Court.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 10.

At 12 o'clock a sitting of the licensing court was held in the police court. Present—His Worship the Mayor, Hon. A. F. Pemberton, stipendiary magistrate, and T. Shotbolt, Esq., J. P.

The city clerk stated the first application was that of George Raymond for a retail license for premises on Johnson street, being the old mill adjoining Bunster's Brewery.

His Worship said that the feeling of the bench was that the court should stand adjourned till Friday next in order to give an opportunity to the other justices who were present at the last sitting, from which some of the applications were continued, to attend. This it was their duty to do, but they were probably prevented by business.

The court was then adjourned till Friday next.

The other application for retail license intended to be made at this court was Chas. F. Dillon, for premises in Duck's building, corner Broad and Johnson streets. Also, an application for transfer from Philip J. Hall, of the license of premises known as the "Bee Hive," corner of Fort and Broad streets, to Mr. Francis.

The Motlakahtla Difficulty.

Capt. Stodder left yesterday morning for Port Townsend after having waited on the premier in regard to possible trouble at Metlakahtla among the Indians. A telegram was at once forwarded to Washington and a reply was expected at Townsend yesterday, after which the Wolcott will take in supplies and return to this port some time during the day. She will then be placed at the disposal of the authorities to proceed north and quell any disturbance that may be going on among the natives. The Wolcott will be prepared to enforce the wishes of the officials who may accompany the expedition.

TO BE REPAIRED.—The pilot schooner Carolena which was out in the gale at Christmas and supposed to be lost, but afterwards turned up all right in Beechy Bay, will be hauled on Cook's ways for some slight repairs to-day. The schooner Winnifred will be used in the meanwhile.

THE YATES APPEAL CASE.

A. B. Gray vs. Hon. A. F. Pemberton and the Corporation of Victoria.

Mr. T. Davie for plaintiff and Mr. Drake for defendant.

D. R. Harris, sworn—Examined by Mr. Drake. He knew the building in question; it has been propped up with new blocking and secured on the inside with new braces; there are also new supports underneath; the building is out of the perpendicular about 18 or 24 inches; if the verandah happened to be knocked away the front might fall out; one portion of it is open; with a very high wind there is no telling what might happen; the building might bring $2 50 for cord wood, but he could not put any value on it.

To Mr. Davie—On the map of '58 the street is marked 60 feet; was not prepared to say what the width is in other maps.

To the Court—The roof would require new bracing, as a heavy fall of snow would likely break it down; the Indians are in the habit of camping under the old building; they get in from under the wharf.

J. H. Todd, for the plaintiff, deposed to using the old place for storage for old boxes, etc; did not pay any rent for it.

G. J. Clark, on being sworn, stated that practically the building in question was safe; it is not a dangerous building so far as wind is concerned; the roof is sagged and the list to the street is considerable; did not think the place was perfectly watertight.

John Teague, after being sworn, corroborated the evidence of former witness.

To Mr. Drake—If the roof fell in the front gable might tumble into the street; would not give 25 cents for the building.

A. B. Gray, sworn—Was Mr. Yates' agent; the building was especially valuable as a landmark.

A discussion here arose as to the admissability of certain affidavits as evidence and it was decided that they were not pertinent to the present case.

The witness was prepared to board up the lower part of the building or do anything else that the council might require to be done.

Mr. Davie stated his objections to the proceedings against the plaintiff. He contended that the building was not an unsafe one; besides there were many other difficulties in the way in connection with the bylaw. He contended that the bylaw was void as it created an infraction of its provisions a misdemeanor and so trenched upon the powers of the federal parliament which has exclusive power to deal with the criminal law. According to the section in question no case had been made out and in proof read from the correspondence of the chief engineer which he characterized as being indefinite; that he had taken upon himself arbitrary powers that he does not possess. The action of the fire wardens was taken subsequently. It was necessary that action should have been taken by the fire wardens first which had not been done and consequently no offence had been committed. Mr. Gray had never been charged with any violation of the bylaw; he had been charged with one thing and convicted of another. The conviction he contended was not in accordance with the information and must therefore fall to the ground. The council had no power to punish for disobeying a notice but only for an infraction of the bylaw. The bylaw goes beyond the power which the act of parliament gives and the chief engineer had gone beyond his authority.

Mr. Drake quoted authority in controverting the objections raised by Mr. Davie with regard to the defects and informalities that might have arisen in the case. He submitted further that the notices in question were in accordance with the bylaw. It was perfectly competent for the chief engineer to serve the notices provided he did it in conjunction with the fire wardens of the city and the evidence of the wardens went to prove that such was the case. Other objections of Mr. Davie were taken up and dealt with. The Municipality Act was quoted to show that the council had entire control over all matters connected with securing the city against fire. Fire limits bylaw was then discussed, with a view to show that the plaintiff had violated that bylaw by making certain repairs to a wooden building without giving proper notice of so doing to the proper authority; as he had put a great deal more than 25 per cent. of the value of the building in repairs on the building in question. The chief engineer and firewardens were the judges as to the fact of the building being a dangerous nuisance and the evidence was conclusive on that point. The council, he submitted, were perfectly justified in the position they took that the building should be pulled down. It was certainly dangerous in two particulars, both as regards fire and as regards wind. Under these circumstances he would ask that the decision of the police magistrate should be upheld.

His lordship reserved his decision.

Mayor Bate was reelected on Monday by acclamation. There is a contest in all the wards for councillors.

An Indian has confessed to taking part in the murder of six Hydahs near Plumper Pass, in 1877; and has been giving evidence before the magistrate's court against an old Indian and his son who are in custody.

The hoisting engine has been removed from shaft No, 1, or the big shaft as it is familiarly called, to shaft No. 2, and placed in position. It is now used in the work of sinking shaft No. 2, which is rapidly deepening. The foundation for the mammoth hoisting engine is now in position.

The new section shaft for the steamship Empire is expected up on the steamer Hunt on Friday. The shaft was procured at San Francisco, but the fitting is being done at the Albion Iron Works, Victoria. It will take, perhaps, a couple of days to put it in position, and then the Empire will be ready to take in coal.

THE MAILS.—Another example of the inefficiency of the postoffice staff was given yesterday. The mainland mails which arrived at 12½ o'clock were not distributed till four o'clock, the entire staff, meanwhile, being engaged in putting up the ocean mails. This state of things will continue until the staff has been enlarged and improved. The public convenience is about the last thing thought of now-a-days.

TO BE LENGTHENED.—To-day the Dominion steamer Sir James Douglas, now on Laing's ways for repairs under the superintendence of Mr. Walter Walker, will be placed in position for being lengthened 20 feet.

New Westminster

(Columbian.)

Capt. Bristol arrived from Yale with the express and mails yesterday. He reports the river almost entirely clear of ice. Heavy rains have melted most of the snow.

We are led to believe the new bridge over the Coquitlam river has been so placed as to be in great danger from spring freshets.

Yesterday a dead Indian was brought up from near a logging camp, North Arm. His head was split open, as if with an axe.

About two weeks ago young Walford, Mud Bay, went in search of cattle and got lost in the woods. He was found 2½ days after, nearly dead, and was with no little difficulty resuscitated.

Quite a number of residences are in course of erection in the outskirts of this city. The population must be about three thousand now, with a prospect of a larger increase this year.

The following candidates were nominated on Monday last for municipal honors in New Westminster:

FOR MAYOR.—H. V. Edmonds, W. N. Bole.

FOR COUNCILLORS.

St. Patrick's Ward—Wm. Johnston, D. S. Courtis. W. B. Townsend.

St. George's Ward.—R. Dickinson, J. W. Howison, H. Elliott, and R. W. Deane.

St. Andrew's Ward—W. D. Ferris, E. Brown, Alex. Peers.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

For Chief Engineer—Wm. McColl, W. H. Keary.

For Assistant Engineer—Wm. Turnbull.

The municipality of Trenant endorses the resolutions passed at Chilliwhack and Sumas on the railroad belt and postoffice questions.

Marine.

Mail steamship G. W. Elder sailed at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Esquimalt with 90 passengers and 924 tons of freight.

Yesterday morning the barque Montana, Capt. Nelson, arrived from Guatamala, seeking. She had a good passage of 42 days.

FROM WELLINGTON.—On Tuesday evening the schooner S. P. Sayward arrived from Wellington with coal.

AMERICA HONESTLY RECOGNIZED.

Acknowledgement that England Could Not Exist Without Our Help.

(London Times.)

It is impossible to escape from a feeling almost of bewilderment at the thought of the future of North America. British Columbia is prosperous, and will speedily become very much more so; but it is not exceptional. All the Western states and territories are doing like her—increasing rapidly in population, and forcing a soil till now unworked to yield them profit. Unquestionably, this is the most important fact in contemporary history. It is a new fact; it cannot be compared with any cognate phenomenon in the past, so that it offers a wide field for those who like untrammelled political speculation. It fascinates the statisticians, such as Mr. Giffen, who has just dealt with it in an elaborate fashion before the Statistical Society. He points out that the population of the United States has risen in a hundred years from 3,000,000 to 50,000,000; that is to say, that it has during that time multiplied itself 16 times, or doubled itself every 25 years. At the like rate of increase it would reach in another century the unheard of total of 800,000,000, but, fortunately for itself and the world, there are good reasons why it should not proceed quite at that ratio. Still, it must increase rapidly till the conditions of life have found an equilibrium and the ease of living in the old and the new world has become fairly equalized.

It is difficult to exaggerate the significance of this, especially to England. On the other hand, we can no longer exist without America. The country of which, within recent memory, we were childishly and vindictively jealous, now proves to be the country by which to a great extent we live. It sends us corn by the hundreds of shiploads. Its beef competes with ours, or rather becomes ours, and is sold at our native prices under the hands of the enterprising English butchers. While to the Roman poet the thought of getting fish from the Caspian was the thought of odious luxury, with us it is the classes that cannot afford the Tay or the Tweed that send to the Columbia River for their salmon. But the idea of a growing America, and a Canadian Dominion which is rapidly increasing in wealth and numbers, is much more than the idea of a new market or a new source of supply. As Mr. Giffen remarks, it is an idea which affects the whole of the political life of Europe. We see a new Europe, as it were, growing up on the other side of the Atlantic, and though their problems are for the moment not ours, and though they resolve to keep aloof from our affairs, their very existence has its influence on us. Little by little the political perspective alters. The world is seen to contain other nations than the three or four which have been used to consider themselves as the only progressive and civilized nations. As yet, indeed, the old world must be admitted to be the more interesting, but even in this respect fifty years more will make an astonishing difference.

LONDON LETTER.

HEAVY SNOWS—CHRISTMAS ENSHROUDED IN GLOOM AND FOG.

THE PRINCE OF WALES AND THE DEAD FIREMAN

[Toronto Mail Correspondence.]

LONDON, Dec. 15.—England, since I last wrote you, has been passing through a startling experience. Long before the ashes of the Alhambra theatre grew cold, the most terrible fire of the present generation blazed up in a fiery pillar from the city, destroying, as you will already know by telegraph, property estimated at from one to three million pounds sterling. I watched the flames from a distance of nearly eight miles, and they surged and billowed up to the sky with terrific violence, plainly showing by their intensity the destruction which was being wrought. Meantime, in the north and east of the realm the land lies deeply hidden in the snow.

FLOCKS OF SHEEP

By the hundreds all across the greatbleak Yorkshire moors have disappeared, houses lie hidden out of sight, and the provision wagons for whole districts are snowed up at lonely roadside inns. In Wales many trains have run into cuttings deep filled with snow drifts, and are being diligently sought for; and every means taken to dig out the unfortunate travellers who are imprisoned in them. Add to this catalogue of horrors severe storms which have here and there strewn our coasts with wrecks, serious and destructive fires at several of our most historical country seats, and it will be seen at a glance through what a period of excitement we are passing. It is long since we entered a time of such dolorous incident. Even death seems phenomenally busy. Thus with

SNOWSTORMS, FIRES, WRECK AND DEATH,

The holly-bright time which should immediately precede Christmas, has been shrouded in sombreness. Here in London, where the weather has been bitterly cold, we have had a visitation of fog, which, at noon last Sunday, plunged the city under the cloak of dense midnight. You could not see even a lamp post till you cannoned against it, and nearly broke your ribs or your head. All traffic was stopped, the gas had to be lighted and the day turned into night. This weather kills off the very old and the very young as effectually as a dose of poison. Our last great fog sent up the death rate 15,900, and I expect the last few days of dismal and stifling cloud-land through and about which we have pursued our shrouded way will be equally fatal to immense numbers of her Majesty's subjects. Reverting for a moment to the Alhambra fire,

THE PRINCE OF WALES,

True to his always kindly nature, did a kindly act last Saturday. He visited the ruins of the city fire in Wood street, then drove to have a glance at what used to be the Alhambra theatre, and afterwards paid a visit both to the wounded fireman at Charing Cross hospital, and the mortuary where the body of the other fireman, killed during the course of the Alhambra fire, was lying. If there be any possible chance of doing the right thing at an unusually appropriate time, the heir-apparent is sure to seize the occasion. To-night I regret to say that there seems to be very little chance of the wounded fireman, who was visited by the prince, ever recovering. His injuries are more than severe, and it is feared he must succumb in spite of the best medical and surgical skill in the metropolis. The sympathy of this wealthy capital has been touched to the quick by the disasters which have thrown so many poor people out of employment just prior to yule-tide. Lord Lonesborough, whose interest in sport and sporting matters is known to you in Canada so well, has specially taken up the cause of the destitute Alhambra employés, and half the theatres are organising monster benefit performances in their behalf.

The Albo-Carbon Light.

The use of it reduces your gas bill nearly one half, and it is nearly as cheap as coal oil lighting.

Softness, brilliancy and steadiness of light are obtained.

The Carbon Generators can be fitted instantly to existing gas brackets, chandeliers, &c., with ordinary skill.

The Albo-Carbon itself (a waste product from gas works) is a solid, is very cheap, is perfectly inexplosive, safe and portable.

The surprising effect of this light may be seen every night at the drug store of LANGLEY & Co., Yates street,
Agents for this Province.

THE BEST POLICY.

Regarding insurance policies against accidents, it is a good policy to have at hand that invaluable medicine for internal and external use—Hagyard's Yellow Oil—worth more than gold in relieving pain and suffering, for lameness, sprains, bruises, burns, stiff joints, and all wounds. (18)

GEORGE KELCY, of Dunchurch, Parry Sound, suffered from dyspepsia for about seven years, and was cured by Burdock Blood Bitters. He says a half a dozen others of his acquaintance have derived great benefit from the medicine, which he now recommends to all suffering from similar complaints. (14)

A SURE cure for dyspepsia. The Oregon BLOOD PURIFIER. Use before meals as directed. *

THE Rover of the Seas brings a fresh supply of pianos for Messrs. Bagnall & Co. The Prince Rupert will add also to the already large stock of pianos, organs and a variety of musical instruments—just in time for New Year's presents. *

A GREAT vegetable tonic for delicate females, is Pfunder's Oregon BLOOD PURIFIER. *

Victoria, B. C., 5th January, 1883.

VICTORIA, B. C., 5th January, 1883.

His Worship the Mayor and City Councillors:

GENTLEMEN,—Herewith I beg to hand you Balance Sheet, Statement of Cash Assets and Liabilities and Cash Statement of Receipts and Expenditure for the year ending 31st December, 1882; also, Balance Sheet, Statement of Revenue collected and disbursed, and Interest and Sinking Fund Account of Victoria Water Works. These accounts will explain themselves, and I need only call your attention to one item in the Corporation Cash Statement, viz: Street Lighting, the actual amount paid during the year being $3,133 98. This sum has to be increased $645, being the amount due and placed to credit of the Gas Co. for the balance of the year, making the total street lighting for the year $3778 98.

I am much pleased to report that the present Council show a balance of $3744 81 Cash Assets over Liabilities. This has, I believe, not occurred for many years. The total gain during the year is as follows:

Balance Cash Liabilities over Assets 31st Dec., 1881	$4,126 12
Balance Cash Assets over Liabilities 31st Dec., 1882	3,744 81
Total gain made during the year	$7,870 93

In conclusion, I may add that the only claims that might be called outstanding, to go against this gain, will be the Rock Crusher ordered from England and a contract let to Willis Bond of $146.

I remain, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,
JAMES D. ROBINSON, Auditor.
